AFRICANS LIVING ABROAD

Africans living abroad who wish to help their relatives back home set up a profitable business or who themselves wish to retire home to a business free from the notorious "African factor". If there is a business you can totally control without risks of changes in Government policies, Customs and Immigration problems, exchange rate fluctuations, bribery and corruption, bureaucratic bottlenecks etc disturbing you, then go for fish farming. Our Manuals are there to help you and we'll answer all your enquiries thereafter free of charge.
